MEXICANS TRAMPLE ON FLAG AND THREATEN FOREIGNERS IN CAPITOL. TROOPS SAIL FROM GALVESTON

REFUGEES FROM MEXICO CITY REACH VERA CRUZ AND TELL OF INSULTS SHOWERED UPON EVERYTHING AMERICAN.

O'SHAUGHNESSY SAFE

Huerta Orders Mexican Newspapers to Publish Extras Telling of Victories for the Federals at El Paso and Vera Cruz and Further Informs His Followers.

Vera Cruz, April 24.—A refugee train from Mexico City carrying 150 Americans, 100 Germans, 300 Spaniards and Mexicans and 50 Englishmen arrived here last evening under the personal conduct of Thomas B. Hoier, charge d'affaires of the British legation.

The exodus from the capital was arranged through joint action of the British and German diplomatic officials with their war office.

The trip was made slowly with many interruptions and reached the Mexican outposts at Tejeria at noon where it was detained for two hours while a search was made by the Mexicans for railway officials, four of whom were arrested and held until General Maas at Soledad was communicated with and their release ordered.

Those arrested were: General Comfort, Superintendent of Locomotives Blake, National Superintendent of Locomotives Burke, and General Superintendent Rowe, all of whom had been ordered discharged by the Mexican government when the road was taken over.

The passengers on the train suffered little inconvenience. All who desired were furnished with Pullman accommodations. There were ten cars in the train and the majority of the passengers were women and children.

The refugees reported that mobs in the streets of Mexico City were trampling under foot the stars and stripes, and threatening American pedestrians. Refugee trains under the auspices of the British and German legations left for Vera Cruz carrying some five hundred persons of various nationalities. The position of those American citizens left in the federal camps was regarded as critical.

Immediately after the news of the landing of the American bluejackets and marines at Vera Cruz was made known in the federal capital by extra editions of the local newspapers, crowds of students and government office employees began to gather.

By dusk a mob had assembled in front of the American club, where they smashed windows and howled insults and threats at the American flag and the men whom they threatened to assassinate.

An appeal to the governor of the federal district brought police protection, but not before the crowd had shattered many windows in the clubhouse and in adjoining property belonging to Americans.

Until two o'clock in the morning bands of excited Mexicans marched through the streets singing Mexican national anthems and shouting "Death to the Americans."

An American delivery store was looted by the mob at midnight. The police looked on without taking any action.

The American Club, the leading hostelry of the city, the Mexican Herald were closed owing to the threats of the mob to burn them and murder their occupants.

Proclaim Mexican Victories. The Mexican City, April 24.—The news-mongers probably acting under the direction of General Huerta, issued extra editions in which they printed dispatches stating that El Paso, Laredo, Nogales and other places had been taken by Mexican troops. The dispatches stated that federal troops had gained a great victory at Vera Cruz, which they expected to occupy and drive the American invaders into the sea.

The papers also stated that the battleship Louisiana had been sunk by a Mexican torpedo and alleged dispatches from the south said that Huerta's Zapata, the southern rebel, was coming to join forces with Huerta.

FIFTH BRIGADE ENROUTE FROM GALVESTON ON TRANSPORTS READY TO TAKE PART IN THE CAMPAIGN AT VERA CRUZ.

FUNSTON IN COMMAND

General Wood Watches the Situation Very Closely, Planning Mobilization and Campaign in Case of Any Emergency That May Arise Within the Next Few Days—More Transports Needed.

Washington, April 24.—Major General Wood, who will command the troops in the field, received reports early today stating that the fifth brigade had been shipped and would leave for Vera Cruz later in the day. Meantime the department busied itself with conditions on the Texas border.

Despite the friendly attitude assumed by General Villa in his statement yesterday, citizens of the towns along the border were apprehensive and the department received several applications for additional troops. General Wood and his aides scanned all information as to the concentration of the constitutional forces in the neighborhood of Juarez, where Villa is located.

The department today announced that it would be unable to move the entire brigade ordered from Galveston to Vera Cruz in the available army transports.

It was also stated that it would be necessary to charter merchant vessels for the movement of the troops. That the department is not in a position to complete arrangements for such shipping and that further action is needed through congressional action.

Fifth Brigade Embarks. Galveston, Texas, April 24.—The reinforced fifth brigade, the army's first expeditionary force for Mexico, broke camp during the night at Port Crockett, here at daylight moving to the transports which were waiting to take them to Vera Cruz. They were expected to sail before late this afternoon.

The soldiers marched from the camp after a night's sleep practically without sleep. The general feeling seemed to be that they were glad to suit the routine of camp life under which they have been for more than a year since the mobilization at Galveston and Texas City. These Camp Crockett regiments, 4th, 7th, 19th and 28th infantry, comprised about 3,000 men and formed the bulk of the brigade, which were largely veterans, all having seen service in the Philippines.

They worked all night packing and clearing camp and by daylight the troops not only were ready to move but the one hundred acres occupied by the camp were literally broom clean so thorough was the clean up. Wives of men or officers, here and there, watched their husbands.

Women Are Spectators. When daylight came in spite of a cold rain, many women stood bareheaded along the sea wall overlooking the camp, seemingly unmindful of the weather as they watched the passers, waiting for a look at the soldiers. One military prisoner, committed to remain in the low raised enclosure at the end of the camp where all the troops passed in their march to the front, fully view the passing troops all the time.

The four infantry regiments which left today joined the camp from the following posts: Twenty-eighth infantry, Fort Snelling, Minn.; Fort Crockett, Neb.; 7th infantry from Leavenworth, Kas.; 19th from Meade, South Dakota; Fort Sill in Oklahoma; and Leavenworth, Kas. Company B, engineers, was also transferred from Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

The 6th cavalry, which was also ordered to sail with all possible dispatch. Just when the cavalry would get here was not known early today.

In addition to the four transports, Meade, Sumner, Kilpatrick and McClellan, which were taking on troops this morning, the quartermaster department was endeavoring to secure one of two commissary vessels, one of which was intended principally to transport cavalry and artillery.

Additional Transports. The quartermaster's corps of the army over night, completed arrangements whereby the steamship San Martin of the Mallory Line and the freighter Fatilla of the Texas Steamship Company are now at the disposal of General Funston at Galveston as additional transports to take troops to Vera Cruz. Horses and artillery that cannot be placed on the four transports already at Galveston will be put on the Fatilla and the San Martin every officer and man in the city knew it and were there at the camp or on their way.

PROCEED WITH PLANS FOR ACTIVE OPERATIONS IN MEXICO AT WAR DEPARTMENT.

CABINET IS OPTIMISTIC

President Declares That Campaign Will Be Directed Entirely Against Huerta's Forces—Cabinet in Session.

Washington, April 24.—President Wilson and his war staff today proceeded with their plans for active operations in Mexico.

The day found every available American warship plying south toward the Mexican coast on the Atlantic and Pacific and a brigade of the first army division being shipped from Galveston to Vera Cruz.

This army force would place 10,000 American troops in the seat of hostilities in the city or begin offensive operations to Mexico City, with Vera Cruz as a base.

No plans for further aggressive movement about Vera Cruz were made today. The president in talking over the situation with callers said that for the present no general campaign outside of that planned would be taken and that no offensive operations would begin in constitutional territory.

Need No War Funds. President Wilson today told Chairman Fitzgerald of the house committee on appropriations, who had come to the White House to learn if any war funds were needed, that no appropriation was required for the present.

In discussing the general situation with the powers, the president explained that he had no fear of the status of affairs would be taken by the American government.

The senate today without debate passed the army bill as agreed to at the conference of the house and the senate.

Cabinet Optimistic. Members of the cabinet, after a conference of two hours, evinced an optimistic spirit as to the Mexican situation. They were also told that no further offensive operations had been decided on.

The cabinet devoted much of its time to consideration of the Colorado strike conditions and departmental affairs.

Secretary Daniels said today that he had no fear of an attack of the American forces by the Mexican constitutionalists.

At the navy department Representative Padgett of Tennessee, chairman of the house naval affairs committee, was called into conference with Secretary Daniels.

The appropriation bill carrying $142,000,000 and providing for the building of two new battleships, now is under consideration in the house.

Marines Ordered. Secretary Daniels today issued orders for the use of 250 marines from the Atlantic station at New York to join the forces of the battleship New York when she sails for Mexican waters Sunday or Monday.

The assembly of a like number of marines in San Francisco for duty on the West Virginia to sail for Mexico on the Pacific coast.

What effect the movement of land troops to Vera Cruz and to the Mexican border, coupled with the renewed embargo on arms and munitions, will have on the attitude of the constitutionalists, was one of the chief questions which confronted the Washington administration today.

One of the keenest interest in officials circles. It was realized that upon the attitude of the constitutional leader, General Carranza, to a great extent hinged the American military operations in Mexico.

Huerta's Plans Unknown. In the meantime officials were also apparently without definite information regarding the plan of General Huerta, although rumors as to the intention of General Maas, the Mexican commander who evacuated Vera Cruz to attack at El Paso, were being spread.

The encouraging features of the situation was the apparent friendly relations maintained toward the United States by General Villa, military commander of the constitutionalists, and the friendly relations with the American consul Carranza at Juarez and it is believed that his attitude might have a considerable influence upon General Carranza.

Carraza, quoted as having said that one of the chief reasons for his coming to Juarez was to show the Americans people that his attitude was friendly. He emphasized the probability of armed conflict with the United States, but said, however, that he was ready to obey orders of his chief.

Carranza himself has made a statement which has been variously interpreted. While in some quarters it is considered as tantamount to a withdrawal of the American assistance, it is as friendly in character. Precautions, however, are being taken by the administration when the orders for the restoration of the prohibition against the shipment of arms into Mexico.

NEUVO LAREDO DESTROYED AND AMERICANS ARE KILLED ON BORDER THIS AFTERNOON

GALVESTON, TEXAS, 4 P. M., APRIL 24.—MEXICAN FEDERAL TROOPS STATIONED AT NEUVO LAREDO, ACROSS THE BORDER FROM THE TEXAN CITY OF LAREDO THIS AFTERNOON BLEW UP THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS WITH DYNAMITE, SET FIRE TO THE WHOLE CITY AND FIRED ACROSS THE RIVER AT THE UNITED STATES TROOPS KILLING AND WOUNDING MANY.

THEY THEN LEFT FOR THE SOUTH BY TRAIN, THE RAILROAD RUNNING FOR SOME DISTANCE ALONG THE INTERNATIONAL BORDER AND THE MEXICANS FIRED FROM THE WINDOWS OF THE CARS AT ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING

Considerable uneasiness continues to be felt over the rumor of anti-American demonstrations in Mexico City, where there are still many United States citizens and over more definite reports of the troubles at Ensenada on the southwest coast of Mexico where it was reported last night that the American consulate had been attacked. Such steps were immediately taken to afford relief in the latter case by the assignment of gunboats from San Diego. Word of its arrival at Ensenada is hourly expected.

LAND MORE MARINES AT VERA CRUZ TODAY

LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI ADD TO BLUE JACKETS ALREADY LANDED.

BIG FORCE ON SHORE

Over 6,500 United States Marines Will Be Stationed at Port by Tomorrow Night—Establish Headquarters.

Vera Cruz, April 24.—The battleship Louisiana arrived today and immediately landed detachments of marines and blue jackets.

The Mississippi also prepared to send ashore 700 marines and a battalion of blue jackets.

6,500 Men On Shore. Detachments of blue jackets and marines are quartered all about the city. By tomorrow the total forces on shore probably will reach 6,500 men. The outposts have been equipped with twelve machine guns and several three-inch field pieces, which went to the front today.

Rear Admiral Fletcher's headquarters at the Terminal Hotel are guarded by machine guns, while seven field pieces are held in reserve in the vicinity.

The commissary, ordnance and quartermaster's department worked efficiently so that along the docks there are no piles of merchandise, as is usually the case when an army force is landed.

All supplies were promptly distributed among the troops, who also received distilled water from the ships under the supervision of the medical department.

Inspect Mexican Wounded. Over 250 Mexicans, sick and wounded, found in the San Sebastian hospital were inspected today by an army surgeon.

Among the wounded only one woman was found. She had been shot through the arm. In the mortuary of the hospital were found forty unburied Mexican dead.

A supply of ammunition was also found here. The building had been protected from the fire of the warships and the rifle fire of the landing party by the hospital flag, although it appeared certain that there was much sharp shooting from the roof of the hospital.

Sanitary Inspection. Conditions in the hospital were found to be so bad that three navy surgeons were detailed today to assist the hospital authorities.

Food supplies were taken from the "Solace." All the American wounded have been taken on board the Solace.

The medical department today made an inspection of the sanitary conditions of the city and opened negotiations with the Mexican house officials in the hope of inducing them to return to their work.

LIVING ON THE AMERICAN SIDE OF THE BORDER. THE BUILDINGS DESTROYED ARE THE UNITED STATES CONSULATE, THE MUNICIPAL BUILDINGS, THE CUSTOM HOUSE, THE POST OFFICE AND THE LARGEST FLOUR MILL IN THE SOUTHWEST. THE ENTIRE CITY IS A MASS OF FLAMES AND DOOMED.

ONE REPORT HAS IT THAT THREE AMERICANS ARE DEAD AND OTHERS THAT MORE. MANY MEXICANS WERE SEEN TO DROP WHEN THE FIRING WAS RETURNED BY THE AMERICAN BORDER PATROL. ALL AVAILABLE TROOPS HAVE BEEN RUSHED TO THE SCENE.

MUST DECLARE WAR IF U. S. EXPECTS TO AVOID COMPLICATION

American Operations at Vera Cruz Are Being Questioned in Europe.

RECEIVE ASSURANCE THAT VILLA ADOPTS NEUTRAL ATTITUDE

COUSUL GENERAL CAROTHERS SENDS INFORMATION TO WASHINGTON TODAY.

WILL NOT JOIN HUERTA

Constitutional General Carranza Sends Friendly Salute to Washington, Declaring "There is No Need for Anxiety."

Washington, April 24.—The president wishes it to be understood generally that the United States has not adopted a threatening attitude toward the constitutionalists in Mexico, but merely has expected them to remain neutral, while this government continues to seek reparation from the Huerta government for judgments offered them by the Huerta authorities.

An official message from the American consul general, George G. Carothers, describing his meeting with General Villa, was received by the president early in the day.

In this message, it was positively stated that Villa would not join Huerta and intimately conveyed that General Carranza, by his strong position against the capture of Vera Cruz, was in reality seeking to prevent disintegration of his forces. Further steps are dependent upon more definite announcements of the attitude of General Carranza.

Likewise it is declared that the American forces will not extend their operations beyond the coast of Vera Cruz until it is clearly understood that General Huerta will send troops to attempt to dislodge the American forces.

The president made it clear that he had no intention as yet of calling for volunteers or of appearing before congress to ask for an extension of his authority.

Sends Friendly Salutes. "Just had an interview with Villa. He wishes to salute you affectionately and say you need have no anxiety. This morning part of Mexican regulars staff of the army from Dr. Carlos E. Huem of El Paso. General Huem has known Villa for some time, the latter having been in the city across the Rio Grande for many weeks at El Paso and Juarez.

Orders to hold up all shipments of arms across the Mexican border were sent today by the treasury department and to all collectors of customs.

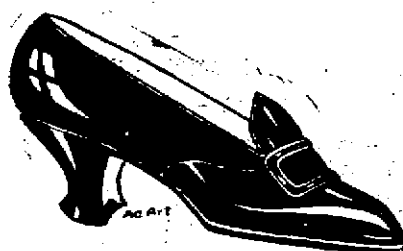

The orders are in cooperation with the war department's efforts to force the embargo on arms. Collectors were notified to hold all shipments of arms until further notice.

El Paso, April 24.—While warships are plying two oceans, and troop ships were loading for the attack on Huerta's stronghold in the south central part of Mexico, the regulars at Juarez and American troops in this city spent a peaceful, though watchful night within a stone's throw of each other.

An early visitor to the other side of the river today remarked to a Mexican friend, "Well, we slept on our arms last night. How did you sleep over here?" "Oh, we slept on our pillows," was the reply, and both laughed.

CHILDREN ENLISTED IN CLEAN-UP WORK; WILL MAKE REPORTS

Civics Committee of Commercial Club Distributes Report Blanks
Among School Children.

Janesville school children have been enlisted in the clean-up campaign which is being carried on by the civics committee of the Commercial club and members of the Civic league with the hearty cooperation of the city officials.

The Commercial club committee has prepared report blanks which have been given to the teachers in the various grade schools to be distributed among the pupils. The blank announces the date of the clean-up activities, May 1 and 2, it then certifies that the boy or girl signing it has helped some person (a blank being left for the name) clean up house or yard by removing or picking up, ready to be removed the following, a cross being placed after the items handled by the children: Tin cans, ashes, garbage, old shoes, bottles, manure, leaves, litter, old clothes, old furniture, swatted flies, planted seeds.

The location is then given and the signature of the boy or girl. The report blank is also to be countersigned by parents or sister or neighbor, and the grade and school of the boy or girl is also indicated. The blanks will then be returned to the committee.

The committee is sending out the following circular letter to the teachers seeking their co-operation in the work:

The civics committee of the Commercial club and the Civic league are conducting an advertising campaign in the interest of clean-up days, May 1st and 2nd.

With the approval of Professor Buell we have secured certificates, which will be furnished you for distribution among the children. We believe that the teachers and pupils can do a great assistance in furthering this work. The certificate provides a place for filling in by the pupil, the place where assistance has been rendered and the form of assistance rendered. The certificate must be signed by the pupil and attested to.

It might be well to call the children's attention to the numerous vacant lots and alleys throughout the city where there is any amount of refuse, scattered and is not looked after by the owners. There is a possibility of their doing good work at such places.

The co-operation of the teachers in the various schools is earnestly solicited by this committee in furthering the work.

Yours very truly,
A. P. LOVEJOY,
Chairman civics committee.

CONSIDER BIDS FOR CITY OIL CONTRACT

Councilman Goodman to Have Charge of Oiling Streets.—Plan Extensive Work.

This afternoon the city council opened bids for the contract of supplying the city with from one hundred to a hundred and twenty-five thousand gallons of oil for oiling of the streets this summer. Tests have been made by City Engineer Kerch and the council expect to close the contract within the next two weeks.

The bids received were $4.03 for light and $4.06 for heavy oil, per hundred gallons. Last year's prices were $4.04 and $4.19 and the councilmen maintain the oil under consideration is of a superior quality having more asphaltic base.

Residents on streets that were oiled last year are anxious to see the work repeated this year and the work will be in charge of Councilman P. G. Goodman, superintendent of streets.

The costs to the property owners and petitioners will be five cents per running foot and four cents where there are street car lines, the Rockford Interurban company paying for work on the car tracks.

The success of the oil treatment depends mainly on the weather and atmospheric conditions, for in cold weather the streets fail to absorb the oil and the true value of the treatment is lost. The council has provided for a boiler to be erected near the gravity tanks on North Bluff street and all thick oil will be heated before being spread and the thin oil treated except in months of extremely hot weather.

All macadam or paved streets have already been ordered oiled and the highways where there is heavy traffic will be given two treatments. It is expected that the oiling of the side streets this summer at there will be no work have to be done on them next year. The oils to be contracted for by the council proves rich in asphalt base and experiments have proven that the best results are obtained from these oils as they penetrate the surface, bind together or cement the pavement and water-proof the road as well.

Oils derived from crudes having a paraffin base prove to be shippier and their use as a dust layer is of short duration because of quick evaporation. Councilman Goodman has planned to brush the oil after spreading and will apply screenings, which adds to form the protecting "carpet" to the road, makes the road dry quicker and prevent pedestrians from tracking on to the oil. It is not possible to close the entire road to traffic for any length of time, so one half of the street will be finished and three or four days allowed for it to dry before being opened to traffic.

The light oil will be used as a dust layer on the dirt street and petitions have been received from residents on Bluff street and others are expected within several weeks. The question formed on the street is desirable to the property-owners, not only laying the dust throughout the season, but lessens the noise of traffic, and in springtime the street will not break up and become mud-holes.

After one suffers for months from acid dyspepsia, sour stomach, and then finds the remedy is in getting the right kind of food, it is something to speak about.

A N. Y. lady and her young son had such an experience and she wants others to know how to get relief. She writes:

"For about fifteen months my little boy and myself had suffered with sour stomach. We were unable to retain much of anything we ate. After suffering in this way for so long I decided to consult a specialist in stomach diseases. Instead of prescribing drugs, he put us both on Grape-Nuts and we began to improve immediately.

"It was the key to a new life. I found we had been eating too much heavy food which we could not digest. In a few weeks after commencing Grape-Nuts, I was able to do my house work. I wake in the morning with a clear head and feel rested and have no sour stomach. My boy sleeps well and wakes with a laugh.

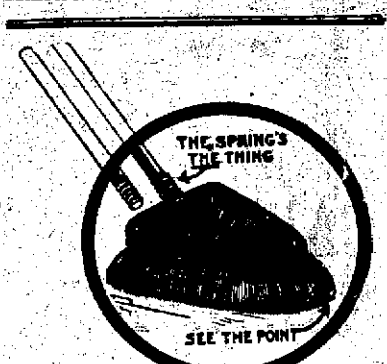

"We have regained our lost weight and continue to eat Grape-Nuts for both the morning and evening meals. We are well and happy and owe it to Grape-Nuts."

Marx Made Trousers Week

April 25th to May 2nd

It is our pleasure to announce that on the above dates we will present for your approval the greatest collection of men's trousers for Spring that we have ever shown. These are the famous MARX MADE Trousers. They are known all over America. Many of the patterns are exclusive; the fit and style cannot be surpassed and the workmanship has for years been recognized as the best obtainable.

First, the Marx & Haas Clothing Company of St. Louis, who make this famous brand of trousers have a special patented device used to notch the cloth so that the tailors in sewing the seams can match each leg perfectly and avoid any chance of making mistakes. This assures a perfect hang to the trousers.

Second, the inside linings always match the fabric both in color and design. It's just a small matter but will serve to show the carefulness of the house in even these little details.

Third, all stripes are matched so that they absolutely follow the crease both back and front, an art that requires expert tailoring. If the stripes don't follow the crease the trouser is not perfect. Note this point when you come in to look at MARX-MADE Trousers.

Fourth, the buttons won't come off—because each button is secured with thirty-two separate and distinct stitches and then the ends are tied underneath in a double knot. There are no loose threads and the buttons stay on.

Fifth, MARX-MADE Trousers are made with a three inch turn-up—this guarantees a perfect drop over the shoe and helps materially in the hang of the trouser.

Sixth, And then in addition to all this, you will find the "Wonder Waist-Band" on every pair of MARX-MADE Trousers. This patented device, which is found on no other trouser, holds the belt in its proper place. It does away with unsightly torn belt-loops. It makes the trouser fit perfectly at the hip, a most desirable feature. Many men who in the past have found it inconvenient to wear belts will find great satisfaction in the "Wonder Waist-Band."

Earl Hamilton, safely back in the fold of the St. Louis Browns, has expressed confidence. Earl says that he's real sorry he ever went and jumped to the Reds and that he wouldn't do it again for worlds. Of course one report went about declaring that Earl had jumped for a perfectly good reason, namely that there was more money to be had with the Browns. Which shows better than anything else just how penitent he is and how hard he is willing to work that he may make amends.

Clyde Milan has announced to his friends and nearest relatives that he expects to have a very successful year at the bat, and if Charlie is able to do only half as well with the bat as Milan has done, he will be a very successful player.

Joe Birmingham, manager of the Cleveland Naps, is one of the unluckiest men in baseball. In the second game of the season he sustained an injury which will keep him on the bench the remainder of the season. To make matters still darker, the Naps are playing the poorest article of ball they have shown in years and now have the tail-end position in the American league.

Leach Cross plans to put the rollers under Freddie Welsh in their bout next week by the use of the six-inch punch. Sam Wallack, Leach's brother and manager, explains in a few words why Leach will be able to clean Welsh, even though Rivers and others weren't able to get near the Englishman. "A fighter like Rivers can be beaten by any fast man if the latter has the cleverness to show Rivers up in the early rounds," says Sam. "If Rivers feels that his opponent made him look like a second-rate fighter in the first round or so he will lose heart and he has lost the fight already. He's easily discouraged. Also, Freddie Welsh can duck the long swings of such a fighter as Rivers, but he'll find it a whole lot harder to keep away from the six-inch wallop that Leach is fond of putting over. He won't be able to stand up under twenty rounds of them. And anyway I don't think that Welsh can hit hard enough to hurt Leach and even if he could he would never be sure of it. Leach shams injuries so much and acts groggy at times in such a way that his adversary never quite knows whether he is or not and he doesn't care to take a chance." So it would appear that Sam Wallack thinks his brother's chances in the coming bout are quite plump.

Most all of the big league scouts have their eyes on Shortstop Gerber of the Columbia A. A. outfit. Gerber is said to be the fastest thing in minor leagues and next season he will probably figure in big league box scores.

Coach Naughton of Harvard is displeased at the idea of Charlie Brickley's playing football. Naughton is in fear that Brickley may be spiked or something and then how would he be able to beat Yale again next fall?

With one eye on the Fritz, Sherwood Magee made two homers. At that clip he'd get four homers with both eyes gone or with both good, either way you care to look at it.

Dippy Dopes are laughable at Lakota Minstrels.

Inherited Character.

It has been explained that character and behavior of all organic matter, plants as well as animals and human beings, is determined by what are known as character units. Thus in taking a hypothetical case of the shrewd, cruel father and the shiftless, kind mother, we have four distinct character units, which through inheritance reappear variously grouped in the offspring.

REVERENCE IS PAID TO SHAKESPEARE AT BIG DRAMA BANQUET

Fifty Members of Janesville Dramatic Society Attended Repeat at High School Last Evening.

"All the world's a stage, And all the men and women merely players. They had their exits and their entrances, And one man in his time plays many parts."

With over fifty members in attendance, which number constitutes practically all of the registration list, the Janesville Dramatic Society held a majestic banquet last evening in the high school building's reception room at six-thirty, to pay homage to William Shakespeare, one of the world's greatest playwrights and poets.

Barring the clever immigration social, which the club gave some weeks ago, the function held last evening was very notable for the drama club is the only organization known of in this section of the state that paid respect to Shakespeare's day and to the man himself.

The members of the committee for refreshments and arrangements, consisting of the Misses Racine Bostwick and Marjorie Mount and Mr. F. A. Doane were forced to arrange a menu very hastily, and in doing so, are to be congratulated for the extremely fine list of eatables which they set before those who took part in the event.

The menu consisted of fruit punch, olives and pickles, creamed potatoes, chicken croquettes, coffee, nut and plain sandwiches, fruit salad, fresh strawberries and ice cream, and cake.

In order to make the event a more fitting one for respecting the day, quotations were laid at each plate, and immediately following the repast, the members were asked to read the verse or verses which appeared on the slips of paper before them. These short sayings were all taken from Shakespeare's "Macbeth," "Julius Caesar," "Hamlet" and "Merchant of Venice," the most familiar works.

It was in order after reading the quotations, to converse, and before long story telling was heard in various parts of the room. Then a suggestion was made that each member give an anecdote. Many responded with witty sayings. A Shakespeare charade was given by Miss Kate Nelson. It took but a few seconds to guess the acting enigma.

The banquet and anecdotes were concluded by nine o'clock, and a suggestion was made that the second act of "The Truth" be read. The members are holding a tryout for the parts in the play, and it was considered a good time to read this one act last evening. The play is so very difficult that many feel that the production can be given successfully only through skill in acting. The evening's entertainment came to an end at ten o'clock.

MILTON JUNCTION

Milton Junction, April 24.—A number of the friends of Mrs. Margaret Owen entered her home yesterday afternoon with well-laden baskets. The occasion was her birthday anniversary.

In the annual contest between Milton and Milton Junction high schools, held Wednesday evening at Milton, our contestants received the following places: Marie Ehr, 1st, and Mable McGowan, 2d, among the girls, while Edwin Davy received second place among the boys. As a result the banner which has been contested for, between the two schools, for the past three years, went again to Milton Junction. As it has been won three times in succession it is their honor and privilege to keep it for all times.

The Eastern Star held their regular semi-monthly meeting Wednesday evening.

L. P. Hinkley was in Madison on business Wednesday.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Helen Cottrell and Lester Hull, to take place May 7.

Thomas Driver was in Edgerton yesterday.

How Fear Paralyzes. Fear ties our hands, James us and betrays our minds, so that we do nothing lest we make mistakes. Pessimism is fear carried to the last degree, and the pessimist is not satisfied with stopping his own activity, but tries to prevent others from doing anything because he sees all the dark side of life and none of the bright side.—Exchange.

WAR BY ANOTHER NAME.

That is the way the Wall Street

Journal deals with the present situation

down in Mexico. They do not go as far as did the Indiana republican convention, Thursday, which adopted

resolutions, though they condemned

the actions of President Wilson for creating conditions that brought about the present conflict, endorsed the present attitude and recommended that the country stand by the government in the crisis. But Wall street looks at these things from a different viewpoint and the Journal says:

"With all due respect to the president of the United States, and with the fullest desire to hold up his hands,

it must be said that, in one phase of the Mexican matter, senatorial critics are right, and he is wrong. A blockade, or the seizure of customs houses,

or the landing of any armed force is an act of war upon Mexico, and the people of Mexico. The United States cannot declare war upon Mr. Huerta alone.

"If it were possible, it would be ridiculous. It would amount to calling out a battery of artillery to kill a cockroach.

"Whether President Wilson recognizes

Huerta officially or not, he is the de facto ruler of a large part of Mexico, including its capital and some of its most important ports, and what he does is the official act of his country. If the people of Mexico were self-governing people (which they are not) and had been, they have their remedy in deposing Huerta by constitutional methods, and suing for peace.

"This, then, is the only condition

under which this country can obtain satisfaction by arms. It may be as humane as possible in dealing with the people of Mexico, and it may even stretch the usages of war to demand

a personal satisfaction from Huerta

when it catches him. But military action in Mexico means war, and there is nothing between. A door is either open or shut. In the case of Crete,

we ourselves established the international rule in the matter by declining to recognize a blockade which claimed it was not a blockade because its intentions were peaceful.

"Prolongation of debate on the question in the senate would be in the last degree unpatriotic. But recognition of the fact is essential in order that this country shall embark upon an enterprise of the greatest gravity with its eyes open.

"Not merely does that enterprise involve almost limitless consequences

these two days and everyone should take their part in the general work.

THE NON-PARTISANS.

There are a few hide-bound politicians of the old school type, who want to stick to the democratic or the republican cognomen when they vote. They fail to realize that a union of these two parties, in one great cause for the common interest of the taxpayers of the state, can work wonders. It does not matter who is elected governor, who goes to the legislature, be he republican or democrat, if he is elected on a platform

that means a reduction of the tax rate

that is gradually sucking out the financial life of the citizens of the state. The non-partisan advocates are going to meet in Milwaukee shortly to discuss the holding of a state convention. They mean business and no one should be so hide-bound that he cannot see the great good that will accompany this movement.

THE LATEST BRAND.

For years we have seen advertisements of "Triple X" brand of some staple merchandise. We have even noticed four X's on certain packages

that were exceptionally fine quality.

We have read of the "shirt sleeve diplomacy" of various political administrations, but it remains for the present day and generation to witness

a new brand created. A four-leaf

W's in the diplomacy article, "Watch out! Waiting Woodrow Wilson."

Swat the fly is all right, but the small boy wonders where the flies are.

He is like the Frenchman who found himself stranded in London and with no occupation. He found a nice brick, powdered it up and sold it to housewives as the great "French Flea Powder." In his journeys around the city he happened to encounter one of the housewives he had sold a package

to. She stopped him, denounced his powder, and he replied: "But, Madam! You must first catch the flea."

Just so it is with the fly. First catch the fly. Then claim the reward.

Brazil is to look after American interests in Mexico during the present difficulty. This is the first time an American nation has cared for the United States in times of difficulty.

Villa may make all sorts of statements while he is close to the American border, but when he gets back to the interior he will sing a different story.

So the embargo on arms has been again put into force and Uncle Sam is moving troops into Mexico. This looks like war with a vengeance.

War news has almost put baseball

into the background as far as public interest goes these days. However the fighting is still going on.

Wisconsin is getting ready to furnish its share of soldiers if they are needed, and it looks now as though they would be.

On The Spur of The Moment

Moments.

There are moments when one wants to be alone.

And with your consent we will catalogue a few.

One is, when you are rushed to death

by business cares.

And the gentle howl of a dog

asks: "What now?"

When you're sneaking down the back

street with your pole

To spend your Sunday angling for the perch.

And you meet the patient guardian

of your soul—

Your pastor on his quiet way to church.

When your wife comes home quite suddenly to find

fingers in your wife's cold cream

while trying to find a match, falling over three chairs and barking your shins, feeling your way carefully

down stairs and opening the front door in response to a loud knock,

only to find that it is a messenger

with a telegram for the man in the next house.

Sitting down on one of these frail

gilt chairs in a friend's house, a chair

that the hostess thinks the world of

and having all four legs break short off.

Sitting down on one of those frail

where there is a cute new baby, the only one of its kind in the world.

From the Hickeyville Clarion.

Wilson's Mexican policy seems to please everybody excepting the Mexicans. Well, by ginger you can't please a Mexican, anyhow. They posed to her three times last week.

courteous station agent down to the railroad depot, wrote to the railroad company two years ago, and asked for a new uniform and they didn't send it, so he borrowed one from one of the hand boys and is wearing

and the one comes from headquarters.

Mr. Amasa Tibbs, who went west

nine years ago to make his fortune, arrived home today. He left the city two weeks ago he got there,

and it took him all this time to work

his way back. He didn't bring the fortune with him. He says there is lots of money out west, but somebody has got all of it.

Better Let the Women Tat. Tatting is the least expensive sort of fancy work a woman can do. Many girls admit that they could, crocheted three balls of cotton while they are tatting one. Men, it will be easier on your pocketbooks if you let this harmless task go blithely on, for those gay sofa cushions are soon done and then thread and linen must be bought for a new one. For a woman's fingers must be employed.—Kansas Industrialist.

FRED RAU ARRESTED ON STATE WARRANT; PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Police Raid "Soft Drink" Store and Find Strong Evidence.—Trial Set for May Eighth.

Fred Rau, proprietor of a soft drink establishment at 512 West Milwaukee street, was arraigned before Judge Maxfield in the municipal court this morning for selling intoxicating liquor without a license. Through his attorney, Louis Avery, Rau entered a plea of not guilty and District Attorney Dunwiddie and Attorney Avery asked the court to set the case for May eighth at ten o'clock, which Judge Maxfield agreed to.

The arrest of Rau was the result of a raid upon the place which has been watched for several months, about nine o'clock last night, by Acting Chief Peter Champion, and Officers Sam Brown, Patrick Fanning and Fred Albright. The three patrolmen were stationed at the doors and Champion went inside and found three Janesville women and a Fort Atkinson traveling man, in the parlor of the Rau residence and placed them under arrest. In search of the place, liquor was found behind the bar, in the front room of the store, in two of the ice boxes and in the cellar partially filled with bottles of whiskey and gin. Two large bottles of brandy and the bottles found back of the bar "used for soft drinks" were taken to the station for evidence. It is also claimed that the state has secured a government license which was granted to Rau for retailing liquor from July first, 1913, for a period of one year, for evidence.

This is the second time Rau has been charged with this offense, having pleaded guilty and paying a fine last year. The place was formerly the Cozy saloon, but when the zone rule was enforced the place was outside of the line and Rau was unable to obtain a state license.

The three women and the Fort Atkinson man were brought to the station and after being questioned, were allowed their freedom but will be subpoenaed as witnesses for the trial.

REBECCAS IN QUARTERLY SESSION ON THURSDAY

The third quarterly convention of the Beloit district 23, was held in Beloit yesterday afternoon and evening, which many of the Janesville Rebecas lodged attended. The district officers were all present and were presided over by the district president, Mrs. J. L. Harper of this city. The address of welcome was given by Miss Nellie Hatchford of Beloit, and was responded to by Miss Alice Mason of this city. Ritualistic work was demonstrated. The Sybil officers of Beloit gave the instruction for the installation of officers. A supper was served to the visitors by the ladies of the Beloit lodge. At seven o'clock, and following the report, a program of interest was given. This program consisted of a comedy, music, recitations and readings, and the numbers were given by the members of the Beloit lodge. The Janesville Rebecas returned home in late car, after enjoying a very pleasant day.

Today's Edgerton News

JEWELRY STORE IS RAIDED BY THIEVES

Rings and Watches Worth $125 Taken from J. H. Hitchcock's Shop. Bloodhounds on Trail.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Edgerton, April 24.—Thieves gained entrance to the J. H. Hitchcock jewelry store some time last night and escaped with seven watches and a quantity of rings, estimated to be worth $125. Entrance was made through a rear window, the screen being pried off and the lower sash broken. The local police department sent for the Beloit bloodhounds, which arrived this morning in charge of two officers. The dogs took a trail leading northward toward the railroad tracks and it is suspected that the thieves caught a night freight for Stoughton or Madison.

Pursuit of Pleasure.
Pleasure is not the chief end of life. Once we expect to be amused as a baby with a rattle or a red cart, we are preparing for a day of darkness. The development of character, not the pursuit of pleasure, is the true end of life. Pleasure comes into life as by-product, rather than an end, and the more we have legitimately the sweeter life will be.

Uncle Sam "Sizes Up" Employees.
The United States navy yard perhaps has the most complete system for the qualification of applicants. It first indulges in a physical examination. Then comes a mental test, with the resultant questions as to fitness in any particular trade. Sometimes Uncle Sam goes wrong, but his lapses are comparatively few. He usually sizes up his man at the outset.

BODY OF WAYFARER FOUND NEAR TRACK

Remains of Unknown Man Discovered by Freight Conductor North of Evansville This Morning

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Evansville, Wis., April 24.—The remains of an unknown man, evidently a wayfarer or "tramp," were discovered lying in a ditch near the North-western tracks three miles north of Evansville shortly after eight o'clock this morning. The discovery was made by Conductor A. Cook of north-bound way freight No. 592, who notified the railroad officials.

The body was brought to Evansville to a local undertaking establishment. It bore bruises and marks which indicated that he had fallen from a freight train on which he was being hauled. There were no marks to indicate that he had been struck by a train. His clothes were soiled and dirty and there were no marks by which he could be identified. Burial will be in charge of the county.

GRIMM GRANTS STAY IN LOQUICIDE CASE

Gives Several Decisions and Grants Two Divorces at Session of Court Thursday

Judge Grimm granted an additional thirty days' stay in proceedings in the case of Philip Loquidice, Beloit-Italian, convicted by a jury in the circuit court of making threats to commit mayhem, at the session of the court Thursday, in order to allow for further time in which to appeal the case to the supreme court.

Judge Grimm decided the case of Lewis Ramage versus Alvan Kethline in favor of the defendant. The action was brought to declare a deed a mortgage, but the court found that Kethline was the absolute owner of the property in dispute and that the plaintiff had decided the land to the defendant in order to clear certain obligations of notes and mortgages. Judge Grimm also found for the defendant in the case of the Mercantile Sales and Adjustment Company versus Frieleman, Kraepelin, Hanson, and Hawes, in a mortgage foreclosure case.

Two divorces were also granted by the court. Carl Johnson secured separation from Florence Johnson on the grounds of cruelty and Minnie Taylor of Janesville from Henry Taylor on the grounds of desertion and non-support.

In a Western town a Mr. Cobb married a Miss Webb, and it was said he fell in love with her as soon as he spied her.

OLD LINE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES SAY THEY'LL PAY WAR/DEATH PENALTIES

Every old line insurance company in America will pay, in full all death claims arising from the deaths of policyholders who may die in the military service of the United States in Mexico. This announcement has just been made by W. M. English for the executive committee of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

Formerly all insurance policies exempted the companies from risks incidental to military service unless specially contracted for. At the time of the Spanish war many companies held to the old rule. Some then waived it, a few retaining it as a feature of their contracts.

The last company to insist upon that rule, Mr. English said, "has now come into line. That is as it should be as a matter of patriotism and of public policy. It is not generally known, even among insurance men, that the actuaries of most if not all companies now figure on a war in every generation, so that risk is part of what the insured pay for."

GOOPS

By GELETT BURGESS

Frederick L. Phipps

A Goop with ugly dirty lips
Is Frederick
Lewando Phipps!
He sucks his pencil as he writes!
No wonder that his lips are sights!
Are yours like his, all black with lead?
If so, you are a Goop, like Fred.

Don't Be A Goop!

CHARGES THIS GIRL HELPED PAINT HER WITH RED INK IN COLLEGE HAZING

Miss Ruth Cowan.

Miss Ruth Cowan of Chicago, a sophomore at Purdue university, in Lafayette, Ind., has been made one of the defendants in a suit for $7,000 damages, brought by Miss Margaret Rogers of Shoals, Ind., for injuries alleged to have been inflicted in a "tun party" and hazing scrape in the girls' dormitory at the college. Miss Rogers says she was stripped and then painted with red ink.

CONFIDENCE DEALER BUNKOED ON BILLS

Appleton Business Man Has Counterfeit Money Offered to Him By "Dealer."

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Appleton, Wis., April 24.—A Buffalo, New York green goods dealer is feeling a few dollars because of his experiments with counterfeit money in central Wisconsin, whom he had expected to fleece with the old counterfeit money game. One Appleton business man is fifty cents wiser because of the negotiations.

This man, several weeks ago, received by express a letter from the Buffalo sharper in which it was stated that the writer had a fine run of counterfeit money which he was willing to sell for very little. The bills, said the sharper, were so perfect that only the most expert could detect it. He advised the Appleton man to get in early and "pull down some good money." He offered the bargain of $2,500 in bogus money for $500 and $5,000 for $1,000.

In order to avoid entanglement with Uncle Sam the alleged counterfeit feller used the Express companies facilities instead of the mails and he advised the man to whom he wrote, to answer by telegraph or by express. He suggested that it would be better to meet in New York and elaborate instructions were given for the visit.

The recipient of the letter, who is his sharper to send a sample of the bogus paper. A few days later the expressman delivered a small package in which was a new one dollar bill. It was a piece of colored tissue paper and with it was a warning that care must be exercised in taking it out as the ink might not yet be dry. The bill, of course, was perfectly good.

The Appleton man then ordered samples of the $5.00 and $10.00 bills. But the crook evidently gave him up as a poor prospect.

The matter has been referred to the federal authorities.

WOMEN FORESTERS VISITED IN BELOIT LAST EVENING

About fifty-five ladies, members of the two courts of the W. C. O. F. of this city, journeyed to Beloit last evening as invited guests of the St. Thomas Court of that city.

The Rockford women Foresters were well represented as was also the Elkhorn court, which has lately been organized. High Chief Ranger, Rose of Chicago, was the guest of honor, and gave a splendid talk on the rapidly growing courts of our country and the advisability of insurances and a program by the Beloit court caused the evening to be listed in the memory of all as one not soon to be forgotten.

COMPETITORS READY FOR EVENTS TONIGHT

Contests at High School Auditorium Will Be Entertained by Keen Interest and Rivalry.

When the twentieth annual medal contest commences tonight, there will be feeling among the contestants never before experienced in the history of a like feature on the part of the speakers. Dearborn and Horwood are both entered in the two short contests with Brownell in the oratorical declamation contest. In previous markings, it is rumored that Dearborn and Horwood even up in the percentages. The students are hoping that the two speakers will break even to avoid any rivalry between the men which is bound to exist. In case Brownell is the best man in the contest in which he is entered, then the decision in the other contest will be of greater interest to the school as a whole.

Dearborn held the audience spellbound last year, by his delivery and voice, and won the medal, which he is defending tonight. Horwood lost out in the race last year, but has improved so greatly that he has a large percentage of the students favoring him to win tonight. Brownell is a steady speaker, having a rangy voice and a cool delivery. His contest makes things interesting tonight for his opponent.

The extempore contest will be of interest. Victor Hemming will defend the Recorder medal tonight which he won against John Ferguson, Edward Atwood and Phil Powers. Topics will be drawn a short time before the contest. Few poems were handed in this year. The prize verse will be read by the author tonight, and the medal presented.

Last but not least, comes the declamatory contest, in which Miss Evelyn Weir will defend the medal she captured last spring against Ruth Doherty and Betty Cordell.

Three Youths Wanted in Lake Geneva Captured by Janesville Police Last Night.

Officer Patrick Fanning arrested three youths who gave their names as Don Carey, George Kelly and Scott King at the Chicago and Northwestern station at three o'clock this morning in response to a telephone message from the police department of Geneva, Illinois, that the three had broken jail at the city of Lake Geneva.

The trio were brought to the station and this noon James Cronin, chief of police, and T. D. Burton, deputy sheriff, of Lake Geneva, came to this city in an automobile to take the three boys back to the Illinois city. The three were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Burton last night at a school house south of Geneva city as they had come there in a small touring car and had broken into the school house to spend the night. The car and the boys were taken to Lake Geneva and because the city jail had been condemned, they were placed in a room. Before ten o'clock they had made their escape by kicking out a portion of the side wall and the police at once located their description to surrounding cities, including Janesville. Officer Fanning found them crossing the tracks and although they protested arrest and declared they had walked from Chicago, were held at the city hall over night.

Carey and Kelly gave their ages as being twenty years and King eighteen and told the Janesville police their homes were in Chicago. A search here they had no money and the Lake Geneva authorities declared that they had abandoned the car because of having no money to purchase gasoline.

UNIVERSITY ATHLETES GATHER AT A SMOKER

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., April 24.—To foster acquaintance of the student body with the university's best athletes, a "W" smoker was given at the gymnasium last night. Over fifty members of the "W" attended. Bryan, puny, free lunch and talks by Director George W. Ehler, Coaches W. J. Juneau and T. E. Jones, and Basketball Captain Eugene Van Gent featured the program.

HYOMEI RELIEVES

Catarrh, Head Colds, Snuffles Almost Instantly—You Breathe It.

Why delay and continue to needlessly suffer the ravages of catarrh? It is not only unnecessary, but dangerous. Try now—today—the Hyomei treatment for any catarrh, head colds, hoarseness or bronchitis. The Hyomei process of banishing catarrh, relieving head colds and healing the raw and inflamed mucous membrane is not only most effective, but is quick, entirely harmless and pleasant to use—it's nature's way—you breathe it—no bad tasting drugs to upset the stomach.

You cannot successfully reach the organs where the catarrh germs thrive except with antiseptic and germicidal air. The commonsense method is to breathe a few times daily health-restoring Hyomei. Being medicated air it goes right to the spot and immediately reaches all the diseased tissues. Its antiseptic healing begins at once.

If suffering from frequent colds, headaches, raising of mucus, spasmodic coughing, difficult breathing, or that weak and run-down feeling, surely try Hyomei. Its your duty to yourself, friends and family, for no catarrh victim ever enjoys good health. Get from your druggist at once a complete Hyomei outfit, $1.00 size. Smith Drug Co., always sells it on money back if not benefited plan.

EVERY U. S. FIGHTING CRAFT WILL SOON BE PUT IN COMMISSION

While not expecting foreign complications, the government proposes to be prepared for them. Every fighting craft under the American flag is to be placed in commission.

All the vessels in reserve, including a large number of anti-submarine cruisers, and as well as smaller craft, are to be called to the color. The capital ships—that is, battleships, armored cruisers, and torpedo boat destroyers—are to be concentrated into one formidable fleet.

The blockade work to be done in Mexico will be performed by small cruisers, gunboats, and revenue cutters.

The vessels which are available for commission will bring the total naval strength of the United States up to the following figures:

Battleships, first class..... 8

Battleships, second class..... 25

Armored cruisers..... 10

Cruisers..... 39

Gunboats..... 31

Destroyers and torpedo boats..... 73

Submarines..... 27

PASSED PEACEFULLY AWAY THIS MORNING

Mrs. L. S. Dudley Succumbs at Six O'clock at Her Home on Linn Street—Was An Old Resident.

Appearing to be in her usual health last evening, Mrs. L. S. Dudley passed quietly away this morning at six o'clock at her home, 203 Linn street, of heart failure and old age. She had been in failing health for some time.

Mrs. Dudley was born in Massachusetts, June 26th, 1851, where she lived during her early youth. It was not until after her marriage that she moved to the Badger state. She settled in this city about 1880, where she has made her home ever since.

Three sons and one daughter were born to Mr. and Mrs. Dudley: Nelson C. of Hartford, Wis.; J. J. of Superior; and Miss Nellie M. of this city; Webb W. who passed away three years ago. Mrs. Dudley was called to the world beyond August 5th of last year.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Dudley have not been completed as yet.

SHORTAGE IN ACCOUNTS OF STUDENT PUBLICATION

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., April 24.—The student court, University of Wisconsin, has been asked to investigate alleged irregularities in the accounts for last semester of the business manager of the Sphinx, humorous publication. The Sphinx board has filed a complaint against Charles Rubin, Milwaukee, stating there is a shortage of $42.22. Through ineligibility, Rubin was forced to resign as business manager at the beginning of the present semester.

"The complaint made by the Sphinx board is unjustifiable," said Rubin. A mistake has been made which will be rectified, and the student court will whitewash the investigation.

THE LOST SHEEP AND THE LOST COIN.

(The Story.)
The high crime and misdemeanor
of Jesus was described in the phrase,
"He receiveth sinners." He did not simply tolerate their existence, but he welcomed them, and that, too, without a shadow of condescension. He even went to the point of closest possible contact. He ate with them.
All precedent and custom—the very spirit of the day—was broken. This gave the scribes and Pharisees, those purveyors of public morals, a handle of which they were not slow to avail themselves. They raised a great cry. Custom-bound people were likely to be prejudiced. Approach to the public heart was on the point of being closed up. Not for his sake, nor because the Pharisees deserved an answer, but for the sake of the average man and woman of his day, Jesus defended his course. He did it with consummate skill. He did not increase the apparent importance of the objection by a direct and argumentative answer. He spoke two parables which set forth in significant and persuasive manner the mission to which he was accredited, namely:
the seeking and finding of the lost.
If a woman loses a coin, part of her dowry, does she despise it because it is lost? Because, mayhap, it is trampling in the mire somewhere, or is corroded by exposure? Not a bit of it! On the contrary, her heart is set upon recovery. She lights her hand-lamp and thrusts it into every recess, and as a last resort she sweeps the floor and passes the litter through her fingers. When the coin is found her delight bears some proportion to the intrinsic value of the coin, and to the length and arduousness of the search.
So the apostate sons of Abraham are still dear to God; the publicans, too, who unpatriotically make merchandise
out of Israel's servitude and fallen state. It is the sorry plight, the dangerous predicament of the lost sheep,
which touches the faithful shepherd's heart to pity. In a peerless passage, Frederick W. Robertson graphically pictures the strong bond which maintains between the keeper and the flock. In this instance, the true shepherd, who is no mere hireling, sees in imagination his dear lost sheep on the mountainside, cut by stones, lacerated by thorns, until its snowy fleece is dyed in its own blood. Its piteous bleat-ing haunts his very dreams. He knows that most timid and defenseless of domestic animals will be the easy prey of some ravishing beast. "Out on the desert he hears its cry, sick and helpless, and ready to die." The shepherd heart assents itself. Out in the night-desolation and danger he goes. None ever knew how deep the shepherd found his sheep. But the sheep is found, and the joy is proportionate to the strength of the shepherd's attachment, the perils of the search, and the value of the sheep.

So each sinner and publican is still one of the favored flock; only astray and imperiled. To search him, and restore such a one, is a Divine work in which angels would fain engage—in certain summation of which they are certainly permitted to rejoice.

THE TEACHER'S LANTERN.
The primary use of these parables should not be lost sight of. By them Jesus justified his kindly and familiar bearing toward publicans and sinners
—at which the Pharisees and scribes were so outraged. He showed the veriest renegade of Israel as still the object of Divine compassion, his restoration possible, and a thing to be earnestly sought. The shepherd with the sheep upon his shoulders became emblems of the significant Christian emblems in the earliest age of the church. It was repeatedly carved upon the tombs and altars and frescoed upon the walls of the Catacombs of Rome. It shows how the first disciples loved and appreciated Jesus.
Teacher is the way he sublimates the commonest objects, incidents, and operations. He wove them all with consummate skill into the rich arras of his peerless sermons. Joy in heaven—that the measure of the sinner's peril. Were sin a mere cap-sode, a passing incident, a dilemma, extrication from which is easy, there would be nothing in that to set the crumbling edge of hell, on the brink of the lake that burneth with fire, where their worm dieth not and their fire is not quenched. Because he stands where there is no eye to pity no arm to deliver, except the eye and arm Divine, snatched as a brand from the burning,—it is because of that there is joy in the presence of the angels of God, the way he said it, Jesus said, nor the way he said it,
that attracted the people to him so phenomenally. It was what Jesus was. Men recognized in him humanity at its best. The ideal realized—wisdom, power, love, God in man—human life so in tune with the finite as to think his thoughts and do his deeds. This makes Jesus universally and permanently attractive to those who are intent upon obtaining for themselves and their fellows the noblest development possible. A bit of canvas disappeared from the Louvre. It was one of a hundred masterpieces, yet the ninety-nine were forgotten, and the world mourned the loss and hoped for its recovery. Everywhere was followed, and when at length

the "Mona Lisa" was found, the civilized world rejoiced. If da Vinci's masterpiece is prized like that, what shall be said of a human soul made in the image of God? Its loss is a transcendent disaster. Search for it is a business of superlative importance. Recovery justifies joy in heaven and on earth.

How to Help Inquirers—The Fearful

By REV. HOWARD W. POPE
Superintendent of Missions
Meady Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT: "Look unto me and be ye saved."—Isaiah 45:22

A very common excuse which is met in Christian
work is this:
"I am afraid I cannot hold out."
In dealing with any case of this kind, the first thing to do is to demonstrate first
the cause, and then look for a cure. There may be many causes,
but what ever they are, there is always a cure in the Word of God. In this case it is evident that the cause of the man's fear is this: He is thinking of saving himself, instead of committing the case to Christ. He means to try a little harder than ever before to do good, but he has failed so often in the past that he has little confidence that he will succeed any better in the future. And the man is right. He certainly will fail if he relies upon his own efforts to lead a Christian life.

The remedy in this case is to take the man's attention away from himself, and fix it upon the Lord Jesus, who alone can save him. Say to him,
"My dear friend, the question is not whether you can hold out, but whether or not God is able to save you. Let us see what he says about it." Opening your Bible ask him to read aloud Hebrews 7:25. "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them." After he has read it, say to him, "If God is able to save to the uttermost, there is certainly some hope for you. With an uttermost salvation such as Christ offers, there are no hopeless cases, do you see?"

"Yes, it does look a little more hopeful. I must confess, but I am afraid I should fail, if I started in the Christian life. My bump of persistence is not very prominent, and I am easily discouraged."

"That may be true, but do you know this 'uttermost' Savior has made provision also to keep you from falling?
Read what he says in Jude 24." "Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling; and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy."

"Isn't that splendid? Able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless. Blameless would mean a great deal, but without fault means much more. And that is the condition in which Christ promises that you shall be when he presents you before the Father. (And the joy referred to in that verse is not the joy of the sinner, though that will be unspeak-able; but the joy of the Savior as he looks with actual pride upon his flashed work. It doesn't seem possible, does it, that you can be saved so completely, and made so perfect and beautiful, that the Lord Jesus will put you on exhibition as a sample of his handiwork, with actual pride and joy? And yet that is precisely what he says he can do, and he certainly ought to know.) Now does not your case seem hopeful, looking at it from God's standpoint?"

"Yes, I must admit that it does, but you see my case is peculiar. I had a grandfather who was a drunkard, and I have inherited from him an appetite for liquor. Occasionally an awful craving for strong drink comes upon me with irresistible power, and down I go before it. That is the real cause of my apprehension. If it were not for that I think I could be saved, but you see my case is peculiar."

"Yes, I see your case is peculiar, but do you know we have a peculiar Savior? In the first place, he was acquainted with that grandfather of yours, and he knows all about that appetite. In the second place, he has made ample provision for it in the Book. Indeed, he has provided a special promise for just such cases. Read if you will 1 Corinthians 10:13. 'God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able;
but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.'"

If the man is sincere in his desire to be a Christian there is only one alternative, and usually he will accept it.

If these verses do not lead a person to a decision I have sometimes tried this method: "You are lost now, anyway, are you not?" "Yes, I am lost now." "Well, if you should try the Christian life, and fail, you could not be any worse off than you are now, could you?" "No." "But if you should succeed you would be a great deal better off, would you not?" "Certainly."
"Then it looks to me as if you had everything to win and nothing to lose by starting. Is that not so?" "Yes, but I never thought of that before."
"Will you then kneel right down here and commit the keeping of your soul to Christ?" "I will."

I have seldom found a person who could not be convinced by such simple reasoning, if they honestly desired to be a Christian.

The Test of Love.
Of course sincerity and purity of affection has not one but many tests.
If you love you must know where the other doubts and persist where the world deprecates. Love is because it is. For this reason one stands with it against the world and does not wield the weapons of the world against it. Surely its assurance in the face of the storm is one of its sweetest tests.

Wrong Again.
The Doctor: "But, my dear sir, you must moderate your food; what were your teeth given you for?" The sufferer (calmly): "They weren't given me—I bought 'em."—London Sketch.

DAY after day additional evidence proves the supremacy of the Two Speed Yale Motorcycle

Just as it led the way with DECISIVE VICTORIES in the Biggest Endurance Runs of the summer and fall, it shows its wonderful capability by faithful, efficient service throughout the worst winter weather.

Deep snow, heavy mud and slippery roads
do not trouble the "Big Y", for the indomitable power of the new Yale Motor,
with the patented Yale Two-Speed Transmission, make it easy to conquer the difficulties that baffled the best of the old sort of motorcycles.

Drop in at this store and have us explain, or write for the new illustrated catalogue.

R. S. MAXWELL, BELOIT, WIS.
Will Be At 121 N. Main St., (Janesville Rug Company) Saturday and Sunday, April 25th and 26th.

Will have a full line of Motorcycles and Bicycle Supplies and Accessories.

Hoosier
"White Beauty"

Tomorrow, ONLY $1 puts this NEW HOOSIER in your home on the famous Hoosier Plan.

You may choose between the celebrated
"White Beauty," whose picture is shown here, and one of the other Hoosiers, finished inside in oak.

The terms of the Hoosier Plan are these:

1. $1 puts the cabinet you choose in your home.
2. $1 weekly quickly pays for it.
3. The Low Cash Price fixed by the factory prevails strictly.
4. No interest. No extra fees.
5. This sale is under direct supervision of the Hoosier Company.
6. Your money back if you are not delighted with your Hoosier.

Only those women who grasp this opportunity tomorrow can be sure of getting one of these cabinets on this liberal Hoosier Plan. You realize of course that these terms could not be offered except on a very limited number of cabinets. After this sale—

1. The "Hoosier Plan" terms will be withdrawn.
2. Our regular furniture terms will then prevail.

THE IMMEDIATE CLOSING of this sale may be caused by the number of women who enroll on this Hoosier Plan. If all the women who need Hoosiers should come tomorrow, our allotment would be taken before night and the sale would close. This has happened in many similar sales throughout the country. On the other hand, if women delay, the sale may last all week. This too has happened. Which now is best for you—to delay and take the chances of missing this opportunity or to come down tomorrow and find out about this cabinet so you can decide before it is too late?

It cannot take you ten minutes to decide, once for all, whether you intend to purchase now or later
—And you are deciding, remember,
whether or not you will save miles
of unnecessary steps you now take.

But unless you at once decide, you may decide too late to own this greatest of all Hoosier cabinets on this liberal Hoosier Plan. 700,000 women already have Hoosiers.
Thousands are buying this New Hoosier every week. You should without fail grasp your opportunity and see this cabinet tomorrow.

An Expert Demonstra-
tor From The Factory Has Charge Of This Exhibit.

these conveniences
that have made the
HOOSIER
necessary to over 700,000 Women

(1) Mrs. Christine Frederick's famous "Housekeeper's Food Guide"—on the upper left door—answers every woman's eternally perplexing problem—
"What shall we have for dinner?" You turn the dial to the meat you want and a complete outline of a perfectly balanced meal is before you—an exclusive Hoosier feature that is an invaluable help.

(2) The Cook-book Holder on the middle upper door holds your cook book securely when not in use. When you are cooking, simply open up the book to the proper page behind the holder.
It is on a level with your eye, always clean, never in the way.

There are 40 special conveniences in the NEW HOOSIER
—17 are entirely NEW.

(3) The Hoosier Metal Flour Bin holds fifty pounds. It is so low and easy to fill. The sliding glass front enables you to clean the entire bin easily. The inside is entirely of metal with no corners to hold flour. First flour in is always out first.

(4) The New Shaker Flour Sifter is the most wonderful of all the New Hoosier inventions. It is the only flour sifter ever made on a kitchen cabinet that shakes flour through instead of grinding it through. It cannot wear out and cannot grind through any grit or foreign substance that might be in the flour.

Twenty of these features are described in OUR WIN-DOW DISPLAY, which will be the talk of the town next week—come in and find out about the others.

(5) A Big, Extra Roomy Drawer in the base is made entirely of metal for the proper storage of all kitchen linen, towels, dish cloths, etc. The drawer is noiseless, rustless, and easy to keep clean.

(6) A new feature in the Base Cupboard is a narrow shelf conveniently located for the storage of canned articles.
Most women will find this a great convenience as an "emergency shelf." It will save many trips to the cellar or pantry.

TOMORROW YOU may examine all the new features. You incur no obligation. But you should come early so you can study them all carefully. Our stock of White Beauty patterns is limited. You may be too late to get one on the HOOSIER PLAN if you delay.
Come and SEE this remarkable
NEW Hoosier tomorrow.

JANESVILLE BOY IS MARINE OFFICER AT SCENE OF CONFLICT

Second Lieutenant A. R. Sutherland is Among Marines Who Captured Vera Cruz.

Second Lieutenant A. R. Sutherland, son of Mrs. Mary Ann Sutherland, who resides at 826 Prospect avenue, was among the United States Marines at Vera Cruz at the time of the capture of that city on Wednesday. Sutherland is an officer on the battleship Minnesota, one of the Atlantic squadron under command of Rear Admiral Bagley.

Mr. Sutherland received a letter from his mother a few weeks ago and at that time he was stationed on the Minnesota under the command of Ship Captain Simpson. The battleship was en route to the Gulf of Mexico and was one of the first ships to arrive at Vera Cruz.

Marine were landed from the Minnesota during the early skirmishes, it is supposed, and if Lieutenant Sutherland was not actually engaged in the fighting he was at the scene of the activities and subject to call.

Lieutenant Sutherland has been stationed at San Francisco for over five years, having been commissioned in the marine service soon after going into the navy on the Minnesota. Lieutenant Sutherland attended the Wisconsin university and while there was made lieutenant colonel of the cadets. After being graduated the commanding officer and Senator La Follette recommended him to the naval officials for appointment at Annapolis.

William Sutherland, younger brother of the lieutenant, is at present attending the United States naval academy at Annapolis and was graduated from the Janesville high school several years ago.

WEST CENTER

West Center, April 23.—Mrs. William Harnack was called to the home of her parents on account of serious illness of her father, Frank Giese. He was taken suddenly ill during the night. Dr. Harvey of Footville was called and found that he was suffering from pneumonia.

August Sornow delivered a horse Friday afternoon, which he sold to Albert Branderberg near Afton.

Mrs. James Adee attended a wedding in Field, Wis., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beck left Thursday, after spending several days at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. M. Howell. They also spent Sunday at said home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cory left Friday for a visit with their daughter and family in Minneapolis.

FULTON

Fulton, April 22.—Sandford Sovereign of Janesville came up Wednesday with an auto load of shrubbery, which was set in different parts of the Fulton cemetery.

Mr. S. H. Bentley, who has been visiting her children in Chicago, returned last week.

Spring is surely coming; the calico has begun to bite, also nearly all other kinds of fish the law allows to be caught.

Webb Hill of Dixon, Illinois, visited here Saturday. His wife and children, who have been visiting him, accompanied him home.

The first installment of gipsy horse traders made their appearance here last Saturday and exchanged horses with some of the boys, and everybody seemed to think they each got the best end of the trade.

The farmers have been having their tobacco beds steamed, preparatory to sowing the seed.

Mrs. Oscar Ellefsoe entertained about twenty ladies to a shower given Mrs. Elsie Smith in Chicago, who expects soon to become a resident of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans of Janesville visited their daughters, Mrs. Alice Mead and Mrs. J. E. Sayre, on Tuesday.

Kenneth Poll has recently purchased the old Anse Rice store building, which belongs to his property. This building was built about 1872, and has long been in poor condition and an eyesore to the whole village. Mr. Poll will move the building onto a back lot and repair it over into a barn.

Mrs. Mary Johnson and son Freddie visited relatives in Chicago last week.

The funeral of Alvin Ramsey was held on Wednesday, and the interment was made in Fulton cemetery.

F. H. Scofield returned to Walkerville, Canada, on Friday.

WILL HEAR LECTURE ON "THE TOWN BEAUTIFUL"

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Milton, April 23.—The W. V. I. club has been fortunate in securing Prof. John Lewis Gillin of the department of general information and welfare, of the university extension to give an illustrated lecture upon "The Town Beautiful," Monday evening, May 4, at eight o'clock, in the college auditorium. The general public are most cordially invited to come and hear the most interesting speaker, and see the beautiful moving pictures. It will be a rare treat as well as a very instructive entertainment. Admission free.

The Milton and Harmony W. C. T. unions will hold a union memorial service to the memory of the late national president, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens at the home of Mrs. S. J. Clarke, Tuesday afternoon of next week beginning promptly at 2 o'clock. Tributes of love and respect and sketches of her life and work will be given by the members. It is requested that those having the White Ribbon hymnal will please bring them so that the musical selections from that book may be used. All others interested are invited to be present.

The Civic committee of the W. V. I. club are planning to have a "Village House Cleaning" May 7-7. Committees are appointed to confer with the boards of health and education, and also the village officials, to assist in planning the work. All householders, storekeepers, and even the children are urged to join in making this campaign a success. Definite arrangements will be announced next week.

Commander N. C. Twining, commanding the U. S. S. Tacoma, now with the American fleet off Tampico, Mexico, is an old Milton boy, a son of Prof. N. C. Twining, who was professor of mathematics in the college in the late 60's and early 70's. Little Benny's Note Book.

I herd a good wun yestidday, being jest a kweshshin and no anser, and I sayed it awn yur wun he cam in saying, Pop, will you anser a kweshshin.

To the best of my debility, in the words of the hipperconcrack, sed pop.

No sir, I sed, and pop sed, then have yur sprung that awn yure mothr yet.

No sir, I sed, and pop sed, Then kum up stares and we will spring it awn her in a body. Wier we went up and ma was in her room playing solitaire with a pack of cards, and pop sed, Benny, a kweshshin to yur mothr. In a little rusty, awn my fizeology, but no dowl, she can anser it.

Wats awn that about fizeology, sed ma, for goodness takes dont ask me anything about fizeology, when I was a girl I coodent bare to look at those orill pictures of people without there skin awn. Benny, fizeology book is in the sitting room if you want to find out anything, now if I can say get anuthir ace this thing awt to kum out awt rite, if anuthing happens to this king.

But it is not much of a kweshshin, sed pop, kum up a kweshshin of experients than edikayshin, I dowl if its even in the book, the kweshshin is, Ware duz yure lap go to when you stand up.

In sure dont no go look in the fizeology, I told you, sed ma, O deer, if I only get anuthir ace now.

But its a very simpli kweshshin, sed pop, I dont even bleeve you herd wat it was, did you.

No, sed ma, I dont care wat it is, look in the fizeology, can you, dont you see im playing solitaire, O deer, this thing went going to kum out, I no it.

Ill repeat the kweshshin, sed pop, ware duz yure lap go to wen you stand up.

And I repeat, go look in the fizeology, sed ma, if this thing kums out, I will be yure fawit, I told you I hate fizeology.

Benny, its no use, sed pop, we mite as well ask her ware her sents, of howwer go to wen a loak heaves in site.

Goodly, heers an ace, sed ma.

Well kum out for the jucker, it mite make you laff, sed pop, And he opened his papir and staid to read it and I went out to see if any of the fellos was around.

A Staple Medicine for Every Family

No Self Respecting Group of People Should be Without a Good Family Laxative.

LAWRENCE A. WRIGHT.

It is inconceivable in this day of general intelligence that any family would be without a simple remedy for the minor ills of life, for often by giving such a remedy in time a serious disease can be frustrated and a life saved.

For example, if at the first sign of a cold a simple laxative- tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin were given, the beginning of a serious lung affection or of a typhoid fever might be avoided. And also in headaches, nervousness, etc., a small dose of this remedy would relieve the congestion and replace distress with comfort.

Mothers give it to tiny infants and little children, and grown people take it with equally good effect.

Thousands of good American homes never without it, among them the home of Mrs. C. A. Wright, 1831 Pasadena Ave., Long Beach, Cal. She had considerable trouble raising little Lawrence, three years old, but after regulating his bowels with small doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he began to thrive and she has had no further trouble with him. They use it generally in her home.

Syrup Pepsin saves the health of the family, and it saves doctor's bills. It is a guaranteed cure for any form of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, was on the stomach, headaches, drowsiness after eating, etc. Have no hesitancy about giving it to any member of the family, however young or old, for it contains nothing injurious to the youngest person.

A bottle can be obtained at any nearby drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is more economical and is bought by those who have already convinced themselves of its merits. Syrup Pepsin users learn to discard pills, salts, cathartics and purgatives generally as they are too great a shock to any average system.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address after eating, etc. Have no hesitancy about giving it to any member of the family, however young or old, for it contains nothing injurious to the youngest person.

Better Clothes For Less Money

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Janesville Daily Gazette, April 24, 1874.—Fire in Center: Jos. Stapleton, a farmer living near Footville, a few days since suffered the loss by fire of his granary, straw stacks, two cows and a pig. A violent wind prevailed at the time and it is supposed that sparks from the chimney of the house, a few rods distant, fell in the hay and ignited. Most of the grain was saved. The amount of property destroyed would probably not exceed $200.

The attention of the officers of the city has been directed to several suspicious characters who have lately come to town. They evidently need watching. Last night Prof. Bischoff's residence was entered and twenty-five dollars taken from his pockets without awakening any of the inmates. If somebody could face these villains with a loaded revolver while they are attempting to gain entrance to a private dwelling and kill one of them, he would confer a benefit on society. The Bower City Band will accompany the Odd Fellows on their trip to Monroe next Tuesday.

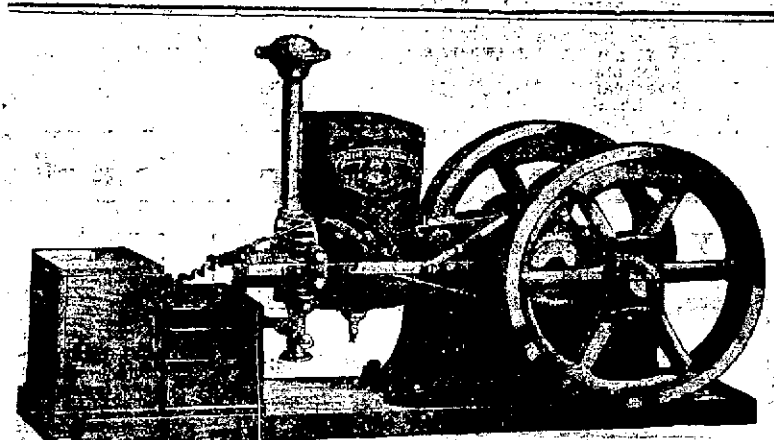

The common council last evening fixed the salary of the city clerk at $800 and the city attorney at $500, reducing the clerk's salary $200 and the city attorney's $100 from what they were paid last year.

Twenty-five dollars is the amount which the city charges for the privilege of selling intoxicating liquors.

The contract for the sinking of the well on the Fair Grounds was signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of witnesses today, the work to commence as soon as the casing arrives from Philadelphia.

In consequence of being limited to the number of calls which they will be able to obtain for their excursion to Monroe, the Odd Fellows of this city are reluctantly compelled to withdraw their invitation to others than members to accompany them.

The new city council was convened last evening and presided over by his honor Mayor Merrill.

"THE HIRED MAN ENGINE"

THE BIGGEST BUNCH FOR A DOLLAR.

2 1/4 HORSE POWER $52.00

The Hired Man is a water cooled Engine and is intended for light work the same as the air cooled engines. The Hopper water cooler is very successful on this engine, and has made possible a power development which classes this engine as one of the strongest engines of its rated Horse Power built. It is an excellent engine for the average farm or small shop where continuous service is required.

Before you buy an Engine this Spring see this one.

Convinced By Results

A woman who is well and favorably known in this town sent, the past week, a letter to this office. The letter had to do with the want ad columns. She had taken our paper for the past seventeen years and readily admitted she liked it.

There was one section of our sheet however that she was not in favor of. You notice we say "was not."

She never "swallowed" what she read concerning the real aid to be derived from the judicious use of the want ad page.

Her husband's cousin, from an eastern state arrived to make her home with them; to procure work if possible in her chosen field.

She was a practical nurse. Would go out at reasonable rates. They thought she might do well here. They encouraged her to stay.

Two weeks after her arrival she came home from town; flushed, a wee bit guilty looking. "I have inserted an ad in your home paper for work, used your phone number," she said to the woman of the house.

She received so many answers to that insertion that she was most swamped in calls for her service. That is the reason we received the letter from our old subscriber. She wanted to tell us that, now, she approved of ALL of our paper. She had been a witness to the work of the "silent helpers."

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Yes, There Are Some Who Find No Joy in Base Ball—

By F. LEIPZIGER

Corns Go, ure Pop, If You Use "Gets-It"

Simple As A B C. It's the New Way of Curing Corns and Calluses.

If you have corns now, the chances are you have never used "GETS-IT," the highest seller among corn cures ever known. It is the new way, does away with all trouble, pain and fussing in treatment.

Get the Corns Off Your Feet, and the Corns Winkles Off Your Face. Nothing Can Do It Like "GETS-IT."

ing corns. Thousands who have puttered with old corns for years, have gotten rid of them right off, with a few drops of "GETS-IT." It is quick as you can spell your name. Corns just love to be cut, picked, filed, gouged and pulled. Quit it. You've tried cotton rings that cause shooting corn pains. Money saved that spread over the toe and make it raw and tape that sticks to the stocking—now try "GETS-IT." It has none of the drawbacks of the old style corn cures, causes pain and never falls on any corn or callus. "GETS-IT" is sold by all druggists, is a bottle, or sent direct by J. B. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Tired Feet

POOR BLOOD

Cause of Disease, Druggist Tells of Best Remedy for It.

Pure healthy blood is a most essential factor to good health. Poor, thin, devitalized blood may be caused by a weakness of the digestive organs, an accumulation of waste matter in the system, an inactive liver or lack of exercise.

Whatever the cause the best remedy we know is our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It will purify and enrich the blood, tone up the digestive organs, give you a hearty appetite and create strength.

A case has just come to our attention from Gulpport, Miss. Mrs. Armelise Sauter says: "For months I was in a run-down condition and my blood was very poor. I had taken several medicines prescribed by physicians but they seemed to do me no good. Vinol was recommended and from the first bottle I noticed an improvement. I continued its use and now feel as strong and well as ever."

If you have the slightest indication of poor blood take Vinol. It fits to help you we will give back your money. Smith Drug Co., Druggists, Jansville, Wis.

P. S. Eczema Sufferers! We guarantee our new skin remedy, Saxo.

Weak Lungs Often Lead to Serious Illness

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and are easily susceptible to serious lung troubles. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:

231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. "I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise spittle, and my physician told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alternative. I stayed at home and continued taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1908, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alternative too highly."

know she would not have spoken. She would suffer anything for my happiness. But I wouldn't have her bear any more for my sake."

His anger faded suddenly, and when he looked at her again, tears were burning in his eyes.

"Shirley!" he said. "It's my heart, too, that you are blinding on the wheel! I love you. I want nothing but you! I'd rather beg my bread from door to door with your hand in mine than sit on a throne without you! What can there be in life for me unless you share it? Think of our love! Think of the fate that brought me here to find you in Virginia! Think of our garden—where I thought we would live and work and dream, till we were old and gray—together, darling! Don't throw our love away like this!"

His entreaties left her only white, but unmoved. She shook her head, gazing at him through great clear tears that welled over and rolled down her cheeks.

"I can't fight," she said. "I have no strength left." She put out her hand as she spoke and dropped it with a little limp gesture that had in it tired despair, finality and hopelessness. It caught at his heart more strongly than any words. He felt a warm rush of pity and tenderness.

He took her hand gently without speaking, and pressed it hard against his lips. It seemed to him very small and cold.

They passed together through the wet broken, his strong arm guiding her over the uneven path, and came to the open in silence.

"Don't come with me," she said then, and without a backward glance, went rapidly from him down the shimmering road.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The Evening of an Old Score.

Rat-tat-tat-tat!—Major Bristol's ivory-headed camphor-wood stick thumped on the great door of Damory court. The sound had a tang of impetuosity, for he had used the knocker more than once without result. Now he strode to the end of the porch and raised his voice in a stentorian bellow that brought Uncle Jefferson shuffling around the path from the kitchens with all the whites of his eyes showing.

"You dog-gone lazy rascal!" thundered the major. "What do you mean, mah, by keeping a gentleman cooling his heels on the door-step like a tax-collector? Where's your master?"

"Fo' de Lawd, Major, Ah ain't seen Mars' John sence dis mawnin'. Staht out aftah breakfast en de noyah showed up errin' et all. Yo' reck'n whut de mattah, sah?" he added anxiously. "Peahs lak sumpin' preytin' on de mind. Don't seem er bit hese' lately."

"H-m-m!" The major looked thoughtful. "Isn't he well?"

"No, sah. Ain't no mor'n er hum-min-budd dese las' few days. Jes' hangs aroun' lonesome lak. Don't laugh no mo', don't sing no mo'. Ain't play de planny sence de day aftah de ball. Me en Daph moghty pestered 'bout him."

"Fshaw!" said the major. "Touch of spring fever, I reckon. Aunt Daph feeds him too well. Give him less fried chicken and more ash-cake, and butter-milk. Make him some juleps."

The old negro shook his head. "Moghty neah use up all dat mint-baid Ah food," he said, "but ain't do no good. Majah, Ah's sho' 'feahed sumpin' gwinefer happen."

"Nonsense!" said the major. "What fool idea's got under your wool now? Been seeing Mad Anthony again, I'll bet a dollar."

Uncle Jefferson swallowed once or twice with seeming difficulty and turned the gravel with his toe. "Dat's so," he said gloomily. "Ah done see de old man de yiddah day 'bout et. Anty, he know! He see trouble er-comin' en trouble er-gwine. Dat same night de hoese-hoe drop offen de stable do', en dis vey mawnin' er buhd done fy inter de house. Dase er mighty bad hoodoo, er mighty bad hoodoo!"

"Shucks!" said the major. "You're as loony as old Anthony, with your internal signs. If your Mars' John's been out all day I reckon he'll turn up before long. I'll wait for him a while." He started in, but paused on the threshold. "Did you say—that mint was all gone, Unc' Jefferson?"

Uncle Jefferson's lips relaxed in a wide grin. "Ah reck'n dah's er few stray sprigle left, sah. Step in en kek yo'se' et home. Ef Mars' John see yo', he be moghty hoped up. Ah gwinefer mix yo' dat julep in two shakes!"

He disappeared around the corner of the porch and the major strode into the hall, threw his gray slouch hat on the table, and sat down.

It was quiet and peaceful, that ancient hall. He fell to thinking of many times, of old, when he had sat there. The house was the same again, now. It had waked from a thirty-years' slumber to a renewed prime. Only he had lived on meanwhile and now was old. He sighed.

How gay the place had been the night of the ball, with the lights and roses and music! He remembered what the doctor had said about Valiant and Shirley—it had lain ever since in his mind, a painful speculation. The recollection roused another thought from which he shrank. He stirred uneasily. What on earth kept that old-darkey so long over that julep?

A slight noise made him turn his head. But nothing moved. Only a creak of the woodwork, he thought, and settled back again in his chair.

It was, in fact, a stealthy footfall he had heard. It came from the library, where a shabby figure crouched, listening in the corner behind the tapestried screen—a man evilly clad, with a scarred cheek.

It had been with no good purpose that Greaf King had dogged the major these last few days. He hugged a hot hatred grown to white heat in six years of prison labor within bleak walls at the clicking shoe-machine, or with the chain-gang on blazing or frosty turnpikes. He had slunk behind him that afternoon, creeping up the drive under cover of the bushes, and while the other talked with Uncle Jefferson, had skirted the house and entered from the farther side, through an open French window. Now as he peered from behind the screen, a poker, snatched from the fireplace, was in his hand. His furtive gaze fell upon a morocco-covered case on a commode by his side. He lifted it, and his eyes narrowed as he saw that it held a pistol. He set down the poker noiselessly and took the weapon. He lifted it—it was rusted, but there were loads in the chambers. He crouched lower, with a whispered curse: the major was coming into the library, but not alone—the old nigger was with him!

Uncle Jefferson bore a tray with a frosted goblet over whose rim peeped green leaves and which spread abroad an ambrosial odor, which the major sniffed approvingly as the other set the burden on the desk at his elbow.

"Majah," said the latter solemnly, "you reck'n Mars' John en Miss Shirley?"

"Good lord!" said the major, wheeling to the small ornate clock on the desk. "It's most four o'clock. Haven't you any idea where he's gone?"

"No, sah, jes'n he's gwinefer look orah dem walnut trees." "What Ah's gwinefer say—yo' reck'n Mars' John en Miss—"

"Walnut trees? Is he going to sell them?"

"Tree man come f'om up norf' some-whut ter se' about et yistaday, Yas, sah. Yo' reck'n Mars' John en—"

"Nice pot of money tied up in that?"

Greaf King Stood an Instant Breathing Hard.

timber! He saw it right off. You're a lucky old rascal to have him for a master."

"Hyuh, hyuh!" agreed Uncle Jefferson. "Dammy Co'ot er heap bettah dan drivin' er of stage ter de deppo fer drummahs en lightnin'-rod agents. Ah sho' do pray de Good Man ter mek Mars' John happy," he added soberly, "but Ah's moghty 'sturbed in mah mind—moghty 'sturbed!"

The hidden watcher waited motionless. From where he stood he could look. He waited till through the rear window he saw the negro's bent figure disappear into the kitchens. Then he noiselessly lifted himself upright, and resting the pistol on the screen-top, took deliberate aim and pulled the trigger.

The hammer clicked sharply on the worthless thirty-year-old cartridge, and the major sprang around with an exclamation, as with an oath, the other dashed the screen aside and again pulled the trigger.

"You infernal murderer!" cried the major. It was all he said, for, as he swung his chair up, the one-time bully of Hell's-Half-Acre rushed in and struck him a single sledge-hammer blow with the clubbed pistol. It fell from the major's temple and the heavy iron crashed through.

Greaf King stood an instant breathing hard, then, without withdrawing his eyes from the prostrate form, his hand groped for the cold goblet and lifting it to his lips, drained it to its dregs. "There!" he said. "There's my six-years' debt paid in full, ye-ihy-dere, fancy-wakeded belloni! Take that from the mayor of the Dome!"

There was a man's step on the gravel and the sudden bark of a dog. The pistol fell from his hand. He stole on tiptoe along the corridor and leaped through the French window. As he dashed across the lawn, a startled cry came from the house behind him.

No human eye had seen him, but he had been observed for all that. Run your best now, Greaf King! Double and turn how you will, there is a swift-er Nemesis pursuing. It is only a dog, and not a big one at that, but it is of a faithful breed that knows neither fear nor quarter. Like white lightning, without a bark or growl, Chum launched himself on the fleeing quarry, and in the shadow of the trees his teeth met in the ragged trousers-leg.

Kicking, beating with his hands at the dragging weight, the man dashed on. Not till they had reached the hemlocks was that fierce grip broken, and then it was with a tearing of flesh and sinew. Panting, snarling with rage and pain, the man seized a fallen branch and stood at bay, striking out with vicious sweeping blows. But the bulldog, the hair bristling up on his thick neck, his red-rimmed eyes fiery, circled beyond reach of the fall, crouching for another spring.

Again he launched himself, and the man, dodging, blundered full-face into a thorn-bush. The sharp spines slashed his forehead and the starting blood blinded him, so that he ran without sense of direction—straight upon the declivity of Lovers' Leap.

He was tottering on its edge before he could stop, and then threw himself backward, clutching desperately at the slippery fern-covered rock, feeling his feet dangling over nothing. He dug his fingers into the yielding soil and with knee and elbow strove frenziedly to crawl to the path.

But the white bulldog was upon him. The clamping teeth met in the striving fingers, and with a scream of pain Greaf King's hold let go; and dog and man went down together.

Ten minutes later a motor was hurtling itself along the Red Road to the village. The doctor was in his office and no time was lost in the return. En route they passed Judge Chalmers driving, and seeing the flying hasty, he turned his sweating pair and lashed them after the car.

So that when the major finally opened his eyes from the big leather couch, he looked on the faces of two of his oldest friends. Recollection and understanding seemed to come at once.

"Well—Southall?"

The doctor's hand closed over the white one on the settee. He did not answer, but his chin was quivering and he was winking fast.

"How long?" asked the major after a lengthy minute.

"Maybe—maybe an hour, Bristow. Maybe not."

The major winced and shut his eyes, but when the doctor, reaching swiftly for a phial on the table, turned again, it was to find that look once more on him, now in yearning appeal. "Southall," he said, "send for Judith. I—I must see her. There's time."

Weak Heart

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, the heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alternative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is which contains no dangerous narcotics or alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing.

Chatter

By Doc Duck

Some orators make their best point when they come to a stop.

Better a hair in the scalp than two in the brush.

APRIL 24
Don't quarrel today. It will bring you bad luck.

If this is your birthday you will have anxiety in your affairs, which with care will succeed.

—Light or Life.

Child! Child! No more! As if driven on by unseen spirits, the sun steads of time are running away with the light chariot of our destiny, and for us remains nothing except, with high courage to hold fast the reins, and now to the right, now to the left, from a boulder on one hand or a precipice on the other, to guide the steeds in safety. Whither it goes who can say? One scarcely remembers whence he came.—From Goethe's Egmont.

Endeavor to Throw Off Fear.

Fear is the worst enemy that any man or woman can entertain, and if it is felt the cause should be ascertained at once. If there is a physical cause it should be corrected under expert medical advice. If, as is more often the case, it is psychological, supreme efforts should be made to throw it off. It is too late and we become the victim of our own fears.

William A. Ernst of 1184 Richards Street, Milwaukee, was a victim of stomach disorders which made him miserable most of the time. He was often unable to work and he suffered severely.

Mr. Ernst took Mayer's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and was surprised at the quick results. He wrote:

"Your medicine has relieved me of about three hundred accretions and I have not passed any more since taking the last dose. I have not lost an hour of work since. I have recommended your wonderful remedy to several of my friends and will recommend it to all who suffer as I did."

FIRST USE OF RESINOL STOPS TERRIBLE ITCH

Jan. 27, 1914: "I suffered over eight years with eczema. It started in one little place and kept spreading until it covered my hands. My hands looked like they had been burned by fire and peeled off in large pieces until they were only raw flesh. I was told it was eczema. It itched and burned me so that I could not sleep at night. I tried all sorts of eczema salves and one prescription after another but nothing gave me any relief until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and after the first application my hands never itched or burned again, and were well in one week. I want every sufferer from eczema to know that they can find a cure in Resinol." (Signed) Miss Ethel Scott, Milstead, Ga.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for nineteen years, for all sorts of skin troubles, pimples, dandruff, sores, ulcers, burns, etc. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician.

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects.
